The UN in Transition and Transformation: Peacebuilding, Humanitarianism, and Self-determination

Time: 1:00pm

Location: Silverman 280

Choong-hee Hahn, Ambassador and Deputy Permanent Representative of the Republic of Korea to the United Nations

Please join us for an engaging conversation with Ambassador Choong-hee Hahn on topics of contending legal and institutional issues for peace and security, development and human rights.

What work is the United Nations currently undertaking to

- Foster peacebuilding and sustain peace
- Prevent violent extremism
- Address the needs of refugees/migrants
- Preserve humanitarian law
- Uphold the principle of self-determination

Ambassador Hahn is a career diplomat whose areas of expertise include North Korean nuclear affairs, nuclear non-proliferation, regional architecture surrounding the Korean Peninsula and Northeast Asia, North American, European and African affairs, as well as public diplomacy. He also served at the Korean Embassy in Washington, D.C. (1991-1994), Lagos (1994-1996), Vienna (1999-2002), and Paris (2008-2010).
